The late Bill Sandberg was the town Mayor of North St. Paul for over 30 years. He was first elected to office in 1978, and was a great ambassador for the community. In March of 2008, he was first diagnosed with leukemia and passed away in April of 2008.
We invite you to run or walk in memory of Mayor Sandberg.

Pick up/drop off your registration at either North St. Paul Community Center (2290 1st Street N) or Maplewood Community Center (2100 White Bear Avenue).
